Over a hundred of Toronto's established, emerging and youth artists come together under one roof for a multidisciplinary explosion of original works and creative happenings. Artistic disciplines, cultures, and generations blur as Toronto audiences and artists share their creative spark.

Ranging from choreographed pieces inspired by simple, everyday tasks, to vocalists disguised as architectural wonders, to bedtime stories and cell phone theatre, New Waves offers something for all ages and interests, free of charge.

An Artistic Treasure Hunt – FREE & FOR ALL AGES
